Club Cronulla Responsible Service of Alcohol Venue Policy

The Directors and Management of Club Cronulla have a responsibility to promote the responsible service of alcohol within the Licensed Premises and also to comply with all Acts and Regulations applying to our Licensed Premises. Our intention is to provide a safe, secure and pleasant environment for all patrons.

The following Policies are part of the conditions of entry into Club Cronulla. Please note that:

- "person/s" means any Club member or visitor.
- "premises" means all licensed areas of Club Cronulla and incorporates all Club facilities including bowling greens.

Responsible Service of Alcohol Policy which will apply to all Patrons of Club Cronulla

1. Any person who is refused service of alcohol MUST vacate the Licensed Premises IMMEDIATELY and not re-enter or attempt to re-enter the Licensed Premises within 24 hours of such refusal. They must also move more than 50 metres away from the Licensed Premises, and not re-enter that 50 metre vicinity within 6 hours. Failure to comply may attract a $550 on-the-spot-fine. (S77 – Liquor Act 2007)
2. Any person who is refused service of alcohol for the second time within the period of 1 month from the initial refusal of service will be suspended from Club premises until such time as a personal appointment is made with the General Manager to adjudicate on the matter. Manager's decision is final.
3. Any Club Member who is refused service of alcohol for the third time within a period of 3 months from the initial refusal of service will be cited to appear before the Board of Directors to show just cause and reasons why a 12 month suspension of Membership should not automatically apply.

Club Policy

Any offensive language or unruly behaviour will not be tolerated on Club premises AT ANY TIME. If any incident occurs it should be reported to the Duty Manager to take appropriate action.

Privacy Statement

Cronulla Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd is subject to the Privacy Act 1988. The Club has a commitment to privacy and the safeguarding of information about you. Any personal information provided by you to the Club (eg. names, address, contact details) for the purpose of receiving marketing information other than relevant to Club membership will be protected.

The Club does not usually disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. This includes obligations that we have under Anti-Money Laundering/Counter Terrorism Financing legislation and in connection with our obligations relating to responsible provision of gaming services. The Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure.

You have a right to access any personal information that the Club may hold about you, including a right of correction of your information.

Your personal information will be used by the Club for marketing purposes to improve our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services, new related services and promotions.

At any time you decide you do not wish to continue receiving promotional and marketing material from our Club, please advise in writing by letter to the General Manager who will remove your contact details from our mailing lists.
